President's Message

Dear NORWF members:

Our first meeting after the Covid shut down was a great success. It was wonderful to get together again. This month will be even better. We will have a forum of three of the candidates running for City Council Seat 2: Diane Velazquez, Gene Knight and Nick Nesta. Please send any questions you would like the candidates to answer to Danielle Hilson at yellowbirdhilson@gmail.com. Please send in your questions as soon as possible. We will ask as many questions as time permits. Of course, all of your questions cannot be asked but we will do our best.

This month our selections for lunch are: Pasta Primavera with a garlic roll, Chicken Caesar Salad with garlic roll or Roasted Turkey Wrap with chips. Please have your choice ready when your phone committee person calls so we can advise the Hilton.

The VFW Post10147 appreciates your Wreaths Across America Sponsorship.

We often get asked "What is a veteran wreath? And what is the meaning behind our live balsam wreaths?" Live balsam wreaths are an important part of our mission to "Remember. Honor. Teach." As we place each living wreath and speak the names of our veterans, their sacrifice lives on and we honor not their death, but their lives.

See how the 10 evergreen bouquets are using in creating each wreath. The meaning of each bouquet is described.
