
Northwest Orange Republican Women, Federated

NORWF MEMBER:

Welcome to Spring at least that is what the calendar says. You cannot prove it by the weather as we go from summer to our winter and back again. Welcome one and all regardless of the season.

Our March meeting brought us some wonderful new challenges as Judi Risser presented the budget which was approved, and Bev Winesburgh presented the Ways and Means and so aptly stated that with the budget that was passed we would all need to support the mini ways and means projects for the year. By mini-Bev means that there will be many projects during the year to bring in funds instead of one large function. Bev and her committee have come up with fun ideas, so we all need to support them. April is the Purse Auction for all of you to participate in. Look in your closet for a purse you seldom used or purchase a purse at a garage sale, store sale or consignment store and fill it with goodies. The one who purchases the purse may really be interested in the purse to go with a special outfit, just donating or just to see what goodies are inside. A little like a grab bag.

I know that you do not like to be told to wait your turn to speak or shush when you are talking and you have been asked to please be quiet, the gavel has been rapped and you keep on talking. This is, inconsiderate, to our guest speakers the person at the mike and not fair to the people around you. We have a few people who wear hearing aids and the chatter around the room sets up garbled noise in their hearing aids and is a great bother to them. Please be considerate of those around you who wish to listen to what is going on even though you are not interested. APPEAR TO BE INTERESTED even if you are not.

We are still looking for scholarship applicants. The deadline will have passed by the time that you receive this newsletter but if we receive an application from a strong applicant, we will certainly consider it. It is hard to believe that we live in this large, growing area and we do not have a single registered republican teen who would like to have or need $2,000 to help with college expenses. I mentioned before to put the word out to young people you know and have them spread the word. We are not permitted to place forms in the schools because we are a political organization.

I look forward to seeing you at the April meeting where Hillary Courson will be our speaker.

APRIL IS AUTISM AWARENESS MONTH

Who is your hero? My hero is my 6-year-old grandson Connor Jacob (CJ). CJ is autistic (mild to moderate on the Autism Spectrum). CJ was diagnosed 3 years ago and was a difficult diagnosis to hear. Wanting to know more, we did some research.

Autism spectrum disorder is a condition related to brain development that impacts how a person perceives and socializes with others that can cause problems. The disorder may include limited and repetitive patterns of behavior. Early recognition and resulting behavioral, educational, and family therapy are key to reducing symptoms and supporting development and learning.

Why is CJ my hero? He has come so far in the three years since his diagnosis it is amazing. With the love and support of his mom, Stephanie (my daughter), his dad Cody and his older brother PJ, along with the various therapists, friends and other family members, he is able to socialize with little trouble, and has learned to recognize when symptoms may act up; using techniques taught by his therapist, CJ works to calm himself. It is truly amazing to see and watch. And CJ is SMART, he is excelling in school and amazing his teacher and his family with his knowledge, especially his mathematical abilities.

There are many resources available to families of autistic children. See below for just a few.

Autism Society of Florida.

If you know or love someone with autism, do not be afraid. Follow the child's lead and do not be discouraged or give up if the child seems to reject you at first. Give it time. And LOVE that child unconditionally. Support, not judgment or criticism is the key. Ask the child's parent how you can support the child and the family.

Do some research. Autism truly does speak; Listen carefully to what it has to say.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT EASTER?

The first Sunday following the Paschal Full Moon, which is the first full Moon of Spring.

1. The tallest Easter egg chocolate was made in Italy in 2011. It stood at 10.39 meters and weighed an astounding 7,200 kg.

2. In the US, only 12 of the 50 states recognize Good Friday as a holiday.

3. The art of painting eggs is called pysanka, which originated in Ukraine. It involves using wax and dyes to color the egg.

4. During the holiday, more than 90 million chocolate bunnies, 91.4 billion eggs and 700 million Peeps are produced each year in the United States alone.

5. Next to Halloween, Easter is the biggest candy-consuming holiday of the year. Good thing they are almost six months apart, perfect for your yearly dentist check-ups!

6. An estimated $14.7 billion is spent in total for Easter in the US.

7. The Easter egg is said to symbolize and represent joy, celebration and new life.

For most of us it means eternal life
